What are your biggest concerns in light of new local, state, and federal leadership?

1. Losing civil liberties (+1)
2. Legitimization of racism, Islamophobia, homophobia, etc. (+1)
3. People will be hurt- physical harm
4. Less civil engagement because lack of trust in the process
5. HUD- unaware, inexperienced new leader
6. Budget cuts for Baltimore City schools
7. The further disenfranchisement of minorities and the LGBT community
8. Less funding for health care, including substance abuse and mental health
9. It's an OMG question but my concerns are expressed for Maryland- losing funding

What can we do within our Bolton Hill boundaries that would work to perpetuate a more inclusive and welcoming atmosphere?

1. Cross Eutaw St. (+2)
2. Support Black owned businesses (+1)
3. Get to know our neighbors better
4. Make intentional invites to those who may not be involved

5. Say hello and smile to others on the sidewalk (+1)
6. Support/advocate for infrastructure changes with new Madison Park North development to further bridge Reservoir Hill and Bolton Hill (ex: extend Bolton St)
7. Block parties (+1)
8. Inter-church/ inter-faith services (+1)
9. More community events
10. Removing barriers to enter Bolton Hill along North Ave
11. Involve renters, recovery home, and apartment dwellers

What could we as a neighborhood do during local events like Artscape, Light City, MICA graduation, Festival on the Hill, etc. that would raise awareness for the issues that are of concern to us?

1. Volunteer! Especially for committees that are strategic/ planning tonight
2. Branding- visibility
3. Info pamphlets
4. Giant light city installation on church roof
5. Solve problems
6. Booths with pertinent information and members to speak with those who want to join

What activities and events occur within the neighborhoods that surround Bolton Hill that we should support, attend and enjoy?
